CHARITY CHEQUE PRESENTATION BY ST BART'S STUDENTS

The generosity of students in Davis House at St Bartholomew's School has raised £4,976.25 in just one year for charity.

In a House assembly on Monday (5 October 2009) the students proudly presented a cheque to Ann Cooper, Community Fundraising Manager for CLIC Sargent, a charity which cares for children with cancer.

Over the last academic year students of all ages had worked together to raise the money through the annual House evening, discos, a pancake race, carol singing, a pyjama run, sponsored events, cake sales and much more.

Commenting on this tremendous effort Mrs Charlotte Duly, Davis House Head at St Bart's said:

"It is a huge achievement to raise so much and our thanks go to students and their families for their support. The donation will go towards funding more specialist nurses, a particular need for CLIC Sargent, to enable them to continue to expand the provision of all round care and support for families.

"This is the second year the students have supported CLIC Sargent and our contribution this year brings our total donation to the charity to an amazing £8,278.98."

Davis House is one of four Houses at St Bartholomew's School.
