ST BART'S SUPPORTS SPORT RELIEF MILE

St Bartholomew's School is getting mile ready in time to host their own Sport Relief mile event on Sunday 21 March. Taking place on the school's Fifth Road field from 10.00am to 12 noon the school is opening the track of challenge to the local community who can jog their way to benefit a number of worthy causes.

With the emphasis on fun many students, staff, friends and families are planning to run their mile in fancy dress or as a relay team.

Organiser of the St Bart's Sport Relief mile and PE teacher Mr Mike Hart says: "This is a wonderful way to raise money for charity whilst at the same time partaking in some healthy exercise. We staged a similar event three years ago and more than 800 people took part. Interest within the school indicates this year will be just as successful and we welcome anyone from the Newbury area to turn up and join in."

Entrance on the day is just £1 per person and sponsorship forms are available from the school's PE department or the Sport Relief website.

More serious runners can have a mile timed and these will start at 10.00, 10.20, 10.40, 11.00, 11.20 and 11.40.

Mr Hart continues: "We want everyone to enjoy the day whilst doing their bit to help others both in the UK and across the world's poorest countries."

All the money raised by the public through Sport Relief is spent by Comic Relief to help transform the lives of poor and vulnerable people.

Ends

16 March 2010
