SCHOOL 'BUZZES' ON OPEN EVENING

Last Tuesday visitors to our annual Open Evening were able to see what a great school St Bart's is, the whole school was alive and buzzing. The efforts from staff were very much appreciated and the students involved were fantastic ambassadors.

Comments from all the visitors were full of praise, "We all know it's an enormous decision filled with apprehension, and something we want to get right for our children. St Bart's has been the outright leader in my opinion, and thankfully my son thought the same."

There are now two Open Mornings for those who still wish to see the school.

Open Mornings

Monday 30 September, 9am – 10.45am

Tuesday 1 October, 9am – 10.45am

No booking required

CLAY CLUB

Last term staff and students alike enjoyed the after school Clay Club run by our Art Technician and Potter, Lizzy McCracken. Students and staff came along for the four week two hour sessions, learning to throw on the potter's wheel as well as slab building techniques, decorating with metal oxides and glazing. Everybody went home at the end of the course with a lovely slab built box and various wheel thrown creations.

Clay Club is £25 for the 4 week course, and can be fully funded for pupil premium students. This covers all materials, firing and tuition. There are 10 places available on each course and we will be starting again after October half term so look out for notices about dates and times soon.

PITT RIVERS AND NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUMS OXFORD.

Towards the end of the Summer Term a group of Year 7 students visited the Pitt Rivers and Natural History Museums in Oxford. As well as an object handling workshop, students explored the many fascinating exhibits. They were later asked to reflect upon what they thought about the two museums.

'We went to the Pitt Rivers

Museum to learn about people and their culture using artifacts. My favourites were probably the shrunken heads, even though I'm squeamish. They were from Ecuador and Peru. They would heat the skin for up to 2 hours after removing the skull and brains. Boiling resulted in hair loss so that wasn't an option. The eyes and mouth were closed with cotton string and the skin dyed black with natural colourings.'

Sasha Pender-Thaw (now 8P2)

In the object handling workshop, students had the opportunity to learn about taxidermy as well as stroke a stuffed owl and then compare it to the skeleton of an owl. The highlight (for some) was handling a Madagascar Hissing Cockroach. The cockroaches were rather sleepy for the first group, but by the time it was turn of the second group they had well and truly woken up, as India Duly (now E2) described, 'it was a great experience when I held the large cockroach. It felt very weird on my hand as it was slimy and ticklish. However, I did not like it when it was crawling fast along my hand, it fell off my hand and landed on the floor. Oops!'

Another student reflected that the trip had opened her eyes to the different jobs that you could pursue in the archaeology and natural sciences sector. The students also loved taking photos of the amazing building that the museum is housed in as well as the exhibits.

Toby worked with the group introducing them to a variety of team building skills and activities which the group then shared with the visiting Year 5 and 6 students who were attending the Open Evening. It was a great opportunity for the group to chat to Toby about his achievements and successes and to learn the values of team building.

At the end of the evening Toby presented a member of the Living for Sport group with a vest which he had worn at the Olympics in Athens. It was presented to Shyam Taank for his superb involvement throughout the evening and for his work encouraging the visiting students to get involved.

British Show Horse Association National Championship

A huge congratulations to Georgia Johnson (11C3), who recently participated in the British Show Horse Association National Championship. Although she had not competed against competition of such a high calibre previously, she still managed to rank 6th and 4th in her events. A magnificent achievement; well done, Georgia!
