ST BART'S ART ACCLAIMED

The St Bart's portfolio on the Open Studios website has given us the opportunity to exhibit 12, regularly updated, pieces of artwork.

Recently Open Studios have showcased our pieces through their Facebook page and comments from local art enthusiasts have been extremely encouraging.

Jodie, A Level Art

“Quality work for someone so young!”

Joe. A-level Product Design.
Coffee Pod holder.

“Some brilliant work, very talented young people”

“How talented are these kids!!!”

Additionally one local artist commented,

Sophie. A-level Art.
Acrylic on board.

“This is where it all started. I was a ceramics A- Level student at St Barts 1984/85 and got to exhibit my A- Level ceramics in the Corn Exchange. Even now I can feel the pride of that experience.”

You can see works in progress, and preliminary projects leading to GCSE and A Level qualifications on the Open Studios portfolio here.

Honor. A-level Art. Acrylic.

ROYAL MAIL STAMP DESIGN COMPETITION

Have you ever dreamed of having your artwork sent around the country? Here is your opportunity... Royal Mail have launched an exciting competition for children up to 14 years old, to create a stamp design honouring their Pandemic Hero. Students in Years 7, 8 and 9 will hear more about this in their Art lessons but there is also lots of information on Satchel:One.

All entries must be submitted on the official form which can be collected from your Art teacher.

Please hand in your design to your Art teacher by Wednesday 19 May at the very latest. Happy Designing!

FOSTER CARE FORTNIGHT 11 – 24 May 2021

West Berkshire Council are looking for foster carers. They do not discriminate against anyone who can offer a child a loving, secure home, as long as they are over 21 and have a spare bedroom.
